

DAN AUGSBURGER

THE GOD-ARRANGED MARRIAGE

- 1       1. In the God-arranged Marriage God chooses your partner
2       for you!
- 3       • a. You don't waste your time trying potential partners
4       ahead of time.
- 5       • b. Don't waste time with someone God never had in 6       mind for you.
- 7       • c. Don't waste emotional resources on someone who 8       isn't for you.
- 9       • d. To protect yourself from temptation.
- 10      • e. Godly courting is God's plan.
- 11      2. Four things to consider with godly counselors
- 12      a. Does God want you to be married?
- 13      • i Marriage is something that will influence and affect 14      your life both in this world and in the world to come.
15      A sincere Christian will not advance his plans in this 16      direction without the knowledge that God approves his 17      course. He will not want to choose for himself, but 18      will feel that God must choose for him. We are not to 19      please ourselves, for Christ pleased not Himself. I
20      would not be understood to mean that anyone is to 21      marry one whom he does not love. This would be sin.
22      But fancy and the emotional nature must not be
23      allowed to lead on to ruin. God requires the whole
24      heart, the supreme affections. {AH 43.3}
- 25      b. Are you prepared to be married?
- 26      i Are you old enough?
- 27      • (1) Attachments formed in childhood have often
28      resulted in very wretched unions or in disgraceful
29      separations. Early connections, if formed without 30      the consent of parents, have seldom proved happy.
31      The young affections should be restrained until the 32      period arrives when sufficient age and experience

- 33 will make it honorable and safe to unfetter them.
34 Those who will not be restrained will be in danger
35 of dragging out an unhappy existence. {AH 79.3}
36 A youth not out of his teens is a poor judge of the 37 fitness of a person as young as himself to be his 38 companion for life. {AH 79.4}
- 39 • (2) Man isn't an adult until 22-24; woman 21-23
- 40 ii Is there appropriate spiritual knowledge
- 41 • (1) Knowledge of word.
42 • (2) Knowledge of SOP
43 • (3) Can you prevail in prayer?
- 44 iii Has a complete surrender been made to God
- 45 • (1) Died to self and come to point of only wanting
46 what God wants.
47 • (2) Accepted the narrow way.
48 • (3) You can't be ready if you haven't made such a
49 surrender!
- 50 iv Is there spiritual and personal maturity?
- 51 • (1) Have you put away childish attitudes.
52 (2) Are you ready to take adult responsibilities?
53 • (a) Has been pointed out that the teen years are
54 when young people want to have adult privileges
55 without any of the responsibilities
56 • (b) When a young man is allowed adult
57 privileges, he has little to no incentive to prepare
58 for marriage.
59 (3) Is there mature judgment?
60 • (a) Young people are sent to school by their 61 parents to obtain an education, not to flirt with 62 the opposite sex. The good of society, as well as 63 the highest interest of the students, demands that
64 they shall not attempt to select a life partner
65 while their own character is yet undeveloped,
66 their judgment immature, and while they are at 67 the same time deprived of parental care and 68 guidance. {FE 62.2}
- 69 (4) Are you willing to listen to counsel from 70 others?
71 • (a) Unwillingness is a huge red flag.
72 • (5) Are you willing to submit to those in authority?

73
74
75
76
77
78
79
80
81
82
83
84
85
86
87
88
89
90
91
92
93
94
95
96
97
98
99
100
101
102
103
104
105
106
107
108
109
110
111
112
113
114

v Has there been the practical preparation?

- (1) Before assuming the responsibilities involved in marriage, young men and young women should have such an experience in practical life as will prepare them for its duties and its burdens. {LYL 19.1}

Since both men and women have a part in homemaking, boys as well as girls should gain a knowledge of household duties. To make a bed and put a room in order, to wash dishes, to prepare a meal, to wash and repair his own clothing, is a training that need not make any boy less manly; it will make him happier and more useful. {LYL 19.2}

vi Is schooling completed?

- (1) The infatuation on the part of both young men and women in thus placing the affections upon each other during school days shows a lack of good judgment. As in your own case, blind impulse controls reason and judgment. Under this bewitching delusion the momentous responsibility felt by every sincere Christian is laid aside, spirituality dies, and the judgment and eternity lose their awful significance. {5T 110.1}

vii Is there financial preparation?

- (1) In early times custom required the bridegroom, before the ratification of a marriage engagement, to pay a sum of money or its equivalent in other property, according to his circumstances, to the father of his wife. This was regarded as a safeguard to the marriage relation. Fathers did not think it safe to trust the happiness of their daughters to men who had not made provision for the support of a family. If they had not sufficient thrift and energy to manage business and acquire cattle or lands, it was feared that their life would prove worthless. But provision was made to test those who had nothing to pay for a wife. They were permitted to labor for the father whose daughter they loved, the length of time being regulated by the value of the dowry required. When the suitor was faithful in his services, and

115 proved in other respects worthy, he obtained the 116 daughter as his wife; and generally the dowry
117 which the father had received was given her at her
118 marriage. . . . {AH 92.1}

119 c. Is this the time that God is wanting you to be 120 married.

121 i Are you willing to accept God's timing?

- 122 • (1) The good of society, as well as the highest 123 interest of the students, demands that they shall not
124 attempt to select a life partner while their own
125 character is yet undeveloped, their judgment
126 immature, and while they are at the same time
127 deprived of parental care and guidance. {FE 62.2}

128 ii Is it the right time so far as your education goes?

- 129 • (1) Before persons are admitted to our mission
130 training-schools, let there be a written agreement
131 that after receiving their education they will give 132 themselves to the work for a specified time. This is 133 the only way our missions can be made what they 134 should be. Let those who connect themselves with 135 the missions be straightforward, and take hold of 136 the work in a business-like manner. Those who are 137 controlled by a sense of duty, who daily seek 138 wisdom and help from God, will act intelligently,
139 not from selfish motives, but from the love of 140 Christ and the truth. Such will not hesitate to give 141 themselves unreservedly, soul, body, and spirit, to 142 the work. They will study, work, and pray for its 143 advancement. I repeat, Do not enter into a
144 marriage engagement unless there are good and 145 sufficient reasons for this step,--unless the work of 146 God can be better advanced thereby. For Christ's 147 sake deny inclination, lift the cross, and do the 148 work for which you are educating yourselves.
149 {PH048 28.3}

150 d. Are you aware of your calling?

151 i Hard to seek a partner when you are not sure how 152 God has called you.

153 3. Some quotes from Ellen White

154 a. For Him

- 155 • i Pr. 31

- 156
- 157
- 158
- 159
- 160
- 161
- 162
- 163
- 164
- 165
- 166
- 167
- 168
- 169
- 170
- 171
- 172
- 173
- 174
- 175
- 176
- 177
- 178
- 179
- 180
- 181
- 182
- 183
- 184
- 185
- 186
- 187
- 188
- 189
- 190
- 191
- 192
- 193
- 194
- 195
- 196
- 197
- ii Here are things which should be considered: Will the one you marry bring happiness to your home? Is [she] an economist, or will she, if married, not only use all her own earnings, but all of yours to gratify a vanity, a love of appearance? Are her principles correct in this direction? Has she anything now to depend upon? . . . I know that to the mind of a man infatuated with love and thoughts of marriage these questions will be brushed away as though they were of no consequence. But these things should be duly considered, for they have a bearing upon your future life. . . . {AH 46.2}
- In your choice of a wife study her character. Will she be one who will be patient and painstaking? Or will she cease to care for your mother and father at the very time when they need a strong son to lean upon? And will she withdraw him from their society to carry out her plans and to suit her own pleasure, and leave the father and mother who, instead of gaining an affectionate daughter, will have lost a son? {AH 46.3}
- b. For both of them
- i Weigh every sentiment, and watch every development of character in the one with whom you think to link your life destiny. The step you are about to take is one of the most important in your life, and should not be taken hastily. While you may love, do not love blindly. {AH 45.1}
- Examine carefully to see if your married life would be happy or inharmonious and wretched. Let the questions be raised, Will this union help me heavenward? Will it increase my love for God? And will it enlarge my sphere of usefulness in this life? If these reflections present no drawback, then in the fear of God move forward. {AH 45.2}
- Most men and women have acted in entering the marriage relation as though the only question for them to settle was whether they loved each other. But they should realize that a responsibility rests upon them in the marriage relation farther than this. They should consider whether their offspring will possess physical health and mental and moral strength. But few have moved with high motives and with elevated

198 considerations which they could not lightly throw off-
199 -that society had claims upon them, that the weight of 200 their family's influence would tell in the upward or 201 downward scale. {AH 45.3}

202 4. Dan's List (With Practical Additions)

203 a. The First three must be yes, otherwise don't even 204 consider courting!

- 205 • a. Are you of sufficient physical and emotional
206 maturity to make such a decision. An 18 year old,
207 for example, is going to change quite a bit in the next
208 four years and doesn't even know what he or she will 209 be like at the age of 22. What seemed perfect at 18,
210 may seem awful four years later. It is best if a
211 considerable portion of your university experience has
212 been completed before you get into serious
213 discussions with a person of the opposite sex about
214 marriage, for the university experience will greatly
215 broaden your views of life and greatly augment your 216 intellectual and emotional maturity. As a result it is 217 only later that you can properly evaluate a potential
218 marriage partner. For some people it may need to be 219 even later. When in doubt it is always better to delay.
- 220 • b. Are you of sufficient spiritual maturity to make
221 a decision. If you have not fully surrendered your life
222 to God, you probably won't ask God to lead you in 223 this, or at the very least you will evaluate on the basis
224 of human criteria instead of using Biblical criteria. If 225 you have not surrendered your life to God, you are 226 NOT ready to consider the "marriage" decision.
- 227 • c. Do you know God's purpose for your life? Do
228 you know what kind of work He is calling you to?
229 Until you can answer this question, it is will be very 230 hard to know WHO God may be calling you to marry.
231 Someone has said there are two great questions in life:
232 (1). Where you want to go in life (for the Christian, 233 this would be God's calling in your life), and (2). Who 234 do you want to go there with (note the right person
235 will be an individual who is wanting, or at least
236 sincerely willing, to go on the same journey you feel 237 called to). IF you can answer the "where" question, 238 the "who" question is far easier to answer. Too many 239 people answer the "who" question before they answer

240 the "where" question. This can cause much frustration
241 and sadness later. In my own mind, the great purpose
242 in life is to know Jesus, to surrender to Him, and to 243 devote one's life to serving Him. Many attend church,
244 but they haven't seen that their lives belong to God.
245 For the person who recognizes that he or she belongs
246 to God, it is important to marry someone who 247 similarly recognizes God's ownership.

248 2. The next three should also be "yes," otherwise don't 249 go forward.

250 • a. To what degree will this union help you
251 heavenward?

252 • b. To what degree will it increase your love for 253 God?

254 • c. To what degree will it enlarge your sphere of 255 usefulness in this life?

256 3. Then continue forward

257 • a. To what degree do you feel that God has 258 specifically led the two of you together to serve
259 Him unitedly in your marriage. In this respect what 260 Muller says about knowing God's will is very 261 important. What specific things can you point to that 262 clearly demonstrate that God has chosen a particular 263 person for you? God is the BEST matchmaker. Hold
264 out for His choice!

265 • b. Are you both Christians? Don't even consider
266 marriage with someone who is not a Christian. You
267 may not care today, but you will eventually in most 268 cases, and the saddest people I know are the ones who 269 didn't care ahead of time, but later changed their 270 mind, and found themselves in very unhappy
271 marriages. The person should also be a member of 272 your own denomination. If not, have them study what 273 you believe BEFORE you get married. A prior strong
274 relationship with the Lord and with the church is a
275 major strength for the future relationship.

276 • c. How close are you in lifestyle? The way you spend 277 your time and money are important to consider.
278 Granted marriage was given to help overcome
279 selfishness, however trend lines in this regard are 280 worth considering.

281 • d. Can the person admit when they have made

282 mistakes and ask forgiveness. One would assume 283 that Christians could easily say “I am sorry,” and 284 “forgive me,” words which are magical in a
285 relationship, but the reality is otherwise. It is hard
286 being married to someone who cannot—or will not—
287 ask forgiveness. Asking forgiveness is often learned
288 through example at home growing up. A deficit in this 289 area will bring significant challenges to your 290 marriage.

- 291 • e. Are there similar energy levels. Some people are 292 like the energy bunny, others need quite a bit of rest.
293 Both groups include fine people, but significant
294 differences in energy can challenge the relationship.
295 Ambitions should also be similar, or at least
296 compatible.
- 297 • f. What are the family dynamics on each side? Can 298 the families celebrate the union? If the family refuses 299 to celebrate the union, are there valid reasons for 300 refusing? What were the values of the respective 301 families? Those values will often significantly impact
302 the relationship in the future. What were the 303 communication styles in the respective families? Do
304 they communicate? Can they express affection? These 305 styles definitely continue into the next relationship.
306 None are necessarily bad, though there are exceptions
307 such as abusive communication styles. Some people
308 refer to the different languages of love and how each
309 person communicates and responds to love in different
310 ways—for example one person verbally expresses 311 love, while another expresses love in giving gifts.
312 Such differences are worth knowing about ahead of 313 time. Reading a good book on the subject would be 314 good. One should also consider how the respective 315 families resolved their differences? Families tend to 316 develop their own ways—patterns—of resolving
317 differences. Some don’t address problems, preferring
318 silence—which can get old over time. Some are very
319 verbal when they are working things out, but resolved
320 whatever is going on and forget about what was said.
321 It has been suggested we all have two communication
322 modes: the one we have when we are on our best
323 behavior, and a backup mode that comes out when we 324 feel threatened or upset, which isn't that pleasant, and

325 can be similar to what we learned growing up. You
326 should also consider the kind of respect shown to the 327 mom and to the dad. This is an important one, because 328 if the guy didn't see his mom being respected and 329 valued, he may not show respect to his spouse. The 330 same is true for the wife relative to her respect for her
331 father. Challenges mentioned are not unchangeable
332 life sentences, but they should not be minimized
333 either. In some ways you ARE marrying each other's 334 family and are bringing the relational styles of your 335 respective families to the marriage. Serious issues
336 should result in serious counseling ahead of time.

- 337 • g. How optimistic is the person? Optimism and 338 hopefulness comes more easily to some than others.
339 However, in my opinion, it is also a decision, and we 340 can develop a more optimistic frame of mind by 341 saying "yes" and "thank you" to God more often,
342 which of course helps us develop a more confident
343 belief that He is somehow working for good in ALL
344 situations.
- 345 • h. Can the respective parties make room for 346 differing opinions and different rates of spiritual
347 growth? Some individuals see every decision as a
348 "yes" or "no" kind of decision—some would use the 349 term "black and white", regardless of what others say.
350 Life isn't always so simple and appropriate open-
351 mindedness can make for a happier marriage.
- 352 • i. Minimize the wonderful things ahead of time;
353 maximize the little things. I am not negating the 354 good things that attracted you, but they tend to be 355 forgotten later and the little "We can change that 356 later" things become all important. Don't assume you
357 can change each other AFTER the marriage.
- 358 • j. Common interests are often cited as important
359 ingredients of a happy marriage. The more things
360 you enjoy in common, the more things you will enjoy
361 doing together. The more time you spend together, the 362 closer you will feel to each other. These 363 commonalities will also help you weather relational
364 storms.
- 365 • k. To what degree are former associations having 366 to change. Friendships are voluntary and are a good

367 indicator of compatibility. Having to change your 368 friends to maintain the relationship can be an 369 important negative indicator of compatibility since
370 friendships are voluntary and you usually spend time
371 with people you are compatible with.

- 372 • l. A suspicious, critical, spirit is also to be watched 373 out for—everyone struggles with this some, but 374 some people have more of a problem with this than 375 others, and it can make for future unhappiness.
376 Are there good reasons for the suspicions? Was this 377 mode of thinking learned at home? Do the suspicions
378 indicate an underlying insecurity? If it was a part of 379 the home growing up, it may well continue into the 380 new home. We are advised that this kind of spirit will 381 destroy the spirituality of a church; it will also mar—
382 perhaps even destroy—the happiness of your home.
383 Life is too short to go through life being suspicious of 384 everyone. If you want to experiment with this, spend a 385 week criticizing each other and being suspicious of 386 each another. Then spend a week affirming each
387 other. See which mode results in a sense of feeling
388 closer. Evaluate which mode results in a greater desire 389 to love and cherish each other.
- 390 • m. How free is communication? Are your thoughts
391 welcomed and seriously considered, or do you find
392 your opinions being subordinated to the other? Do
393 you find yourself “walking on egg shells” and 394 avoiding certain subjects? This is a major red flag
395 since it often gets worse after marriage. Open
396 communication is an indicator of mutual respect.
- 397 • n. Inordinate possessiveness can also be 398 problematic. Some people feel good about 399 themselves and can give much in the relationship, for 400 example, desiring the other person to succeed. Others
401 are not as confident, and therefore struggle to allow 402 the other person to have a “healthy” degree of 403 freedom, in fact, sometimes finding it impossible to 404 allow any freedom. This is a serious red flag problem
405 and I urge you to get counseling for this—if this is a
406 serious issue, you should get out of the relationship as 407 quickly as possible!
- 408 • o. Are you able to study the Bible and pray
409 together? This isn’t the easiest thing to do.

410 • p. What are other people who know you both 411 saying? The heart is deceptive above all things, and 412 love can cause one to be blind. Asking the opinions of 413 others is always a good idea. Many mistakes are made
414 as a result of not seeking counsel from the godly
415 people God has placed in our lives. Ask your parents
416 what they think, but remember that non Christian 417 parents cannot be looked to for godly counsel in the 418 same way Christian parents can be looked to. Ask 419 spiritually mature people what they think? Ask your 420 friends who know you? Most of all ask God. Don't 421 minimize what is said, but also make sure you let God
422 have the last word.

423 5. The courtship pathway

424 a. Elder Frazee's pathway

- 425 • i Does God want you to marry?
- 426 • ii Are you prepared to be married?
- 427 • iii Is this the right time to be married?
- 428 • iv Do your counselors agree?
- 429 • v Who does God want you to marry?
- 430 • vi Does her counselor agree?
- 431 • vi If her parents are believers, do they agree?
- 432 • vi Does she agree?
- 433 • vii Set up accountability!

434 b. Remember...

435 i A wife is a gift from God!

- 436 • i Pr. 19:14 A wife is to be sought from God.
- 437 • ii Seek to know and do God's will!
- 438 • (1) Choose to have no will of your own. Luke 9:23
- 439 • (2) Make sure every step is supported by Scripture.
440 Isa. 8:20
- 441 • (3) Look for God's providential Leadings. Prov.
442 3:5,6
- 443 • (4) Don't rush ahead of God's peace. Col. 3:16
- 444 • (5) Look for confirmation from Godly counselors.
445 Prov. 11:14

446 iii There is wisdom in a multitude of counselors.

- 447 • (1) When so much misery results from marriage, 448 why will not the youth be wise? Why will they

449 continue to feel that they do not need the counsel
450 of older and more experienced persons? {AH
451 72.1}

452 • (2) If you are blessed with God-fearing parents,
453 seek counsel of them. Open to them your hopes
454 and plans; learn the lessons which their life
455 experiences have taught. {AH 73.2}

456 vi Pray

457 • (1) If men and women are in the habit of praying
458 twice a day before they contemplate marriage, they 459 should pray four times a day when such a step is 460 anticipated. {AH 71.1}

461 6. Don't be afraid to break up if it isn't working out.

462 • 1. Even if an engagement has been entered into without 463 a full understanding of the character of the one with 464 whom you intend to unite, do not think that the 465 engagement makes it a positive necessity for you to take
466 upon yourself the marriage vow and link yourself for life
467 to one whom you cannot love and respect. Be very 468 careful how you enter into conditional engagements; but 469 better, far better, break the engagement before marriage
470 than separate afterward, as many do. {AH 48.2}

471 You may say, "But I have given my promise, and shall I
472 now retract it?" I answer, If you have made a promise
473 contrary to the Scriptures, by all means retract it without 474 delay, and in humility before God repent of the 475 infatuation that led you to make so rash a pledge. Far
476 better take back such a promise, in the fear of God, than 477 keep it, and thereby dishonor your Maker. {AH 48.3}

478

479 This is only a portion of a multi-part study on relationships that was
480 first given in Honduras. All rights retained. It was prepared by Dan
481 and Rose Augsburg of path2prayer ministries. You can find more 482 resources at discipleheart.com. They give seminars throughout the 483 world on prayer, revival, the more abundant life, relationships, how 484 to know God's will, and great Christians. In addition to this 485 ministry, Dan also formerly taught on the spirituality of great
486 Christians at the Andrews Theological Seminary in Berrien Springs, 487 MI. You may contact Dan and Rose at 488 discipleheart@protonmail.com, or request to be put on their 489 newsletter mailing list. Dan also has an active ministry on his 490 facebook page. GAM12/12/2022